

1 Summary

Report on the excavation of a roundhouse and related structures dated by ^{14}C to the first–second century AD. Internal details and building repairs allow some assessment of the structure of the building. The site also provides a well-dated context for a Guido class 13 glass bead, a type more common in isolated finds.